

Closeout of M90070027

In July 1990, OIG received a complaint that an apparent conflict of interest existed under NSF grant [REDACTED]. It was alleged that the subject [REDACTED] a staff member at the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and project director under the award, was profiting from the sale of instructional kits that were designed under the award and sold by a small company, of which he was the president and his wife the vice-president. This case at first was processed jointly by the Office of Oversight and the Office of External Audit, and was transferred to the latter office in [REDACTED] 1991.

[REDACTED]

lli